Dear Folks - I spose you are still alive tho we have no reason to know for sure. Yesterday there was a lady here wanting to buy or rent the house on the hill. I judge from appearances that they are good reliable people, so many aren't. She & her husband (retired) have had charge of a large student rooming house in Corvallis they are leaving that place when school is over next week, she said they are tired of it cleaning up broken furniture, over run bath tubs & toilets water running thru floor to rooms below & holes smashed thru the walls etc they have grown married children one in Korea one in Germany one in Seattle & one in California I think she said, she looked neat & had a nice car they would like to buy it she thinks her husband wasn't worth her has just one leg) she seemed to be sensible her mother lives in Seaside I have there since 1935, she's a friend of Daisy's 57, she's alright except she talk ~~talk~~ talks all the time, her name is Mrs Cosnick

The lady in Corvallis is Mrs Farrar

2 houses within a mile of here were practically wrecked by renters this winter when things got so dirty they couldn't stand their own dirt they moved out owing back rent, Crown W. is talking strike so some of those are looking for houses in the country with the idea of stalling on rent.

Your mom seems about the same she is very confused I feel bad that we cant do more for her the nurses take good care of her I think the other two ladies in her room are really worse Mrs Baker seems in a stupor all the time the other lady cant talk but she can yell of course all of us aren't getting young I'm so stiffed & my vision is so bad its hard for me to get things done

I have Jack 8 with us he is finishing his first year at Clatsop College

Then will go to the T.V. shop after a trip to New Mexico. Harold is busy with pumps, some froze during the winter yet it has been so dry for two or three weeks everyone wants to sprinkle their gardens yet

I think your pump is o.k.

I'm so sleepy can't write any more

Write what rent you'd expect or the purchase price

The lady in Corvallis address is

Violet W. See, Plains pioneer, taken by death

Violet West See, well known Clatsop Plains pioneer, died in a local nursing home April 10. She had been a resident there for a year. Mrs. See, the daughter of Josiah and Lamira West, was born March 2, 1887, on the Plains.

Mrs. See received her education on the Plains and at Willamette university. She and the late Harold See were married October 19, 1922, in Astoria. She worked as a practical nurse at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland for two years. Later she operated the retail shop of the West dairy in Seaside for two years. After marriage, the Sees moved to Saskatchewan, where they operated a wheat ranch. They returned in 1925, to the Plains, where she lived until her retirement.

She is survived by two sons, Paul See and John Adams of Scotia, New York; a sister, Daisy West Fulkerson; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The Rev. Clarence Baerveldt conducted the services Monday at 1:30 p. m. from the Clatsop Plains Presbyterian church. Burial was in Ocean View cemetery. Pall bearers were Julian Prescott, Bud Johnson, Robert Reed, Eric Anderson, Fred Ober and Russell Earl.

Arrangements were in care of the Chapel in the Sunset.

Mrs. See was preceded in death by her first husband George Adams and a daughter, Cecile Sauer.

[illegible]

I got your request for information the other day and have finally sat down to work on it. I filled it out in pencil and will send it on to Marie but thought I would send the information to you directly as well as sending you some comments. The i[illegible] have is as follows:

[illegible]

Regarding Dad's birth date, I always heard Dad say he was born in 1[illegible]. but Aunt Margaret told me a few years back he was born in 1909. She said that all or them were born in odd years. I think her information was correct because Aunt Margaret was [illegible]. The said they did have [illegible] perfectly, and Dad should have known because he had to get a sworn statement from family members in place of a birth certificate to join the army and to vote in [illegible] service. It probably he did get his greenings from the [illegible] and the war was winding down and he had a child so he did not have to report after [illegible]. He had his birth certificate [illegible] the Hope County court house washed away in a flood and [illegible] birth certificate with it. Dad had a copy of the certificate but [illegible] seem to have lost it [illegible]. I don't know if he was born in a hospital [illegible]. I suspect he was born in his parent's home and therefore in Middleport. I don't remember [illegible] if he was [illegible] I believe it was February 1[illegible].

[illegible] Mom's and Dad's first child. [illegible] Jr. He was [illegible], I [illegible] and that is all I know about him except that he is buried [illegible].

[illegible] I have been trying to put [illegible] I think I can rely on you for all of Mom's side of the family, [illegible]

Subject: West Genealogy

Dear Paul,
I am Patricia Johnson, wife of Joshua Johnson (whom you contacted by phone a few weeks ago about the West genealogy). I was very excited when we received the genealogy info in the mail today. Thanks very much. I have a few things for you:

Johan Sefrin Johnson dob: 8 August 1880 in Befendalen, Bohnuslan, Sweden dom: 11 March 1908 (Rose Ora West)
dod: 2 September 1965

Joshua Johnson dom: 1 July 1995 (Patricia Perryman Johnson from NC)
Child 1: Judith Caroline Johnson dob: 28 March 2001
Child 2: Dylan Joshua Johnson dob: 23 January 2005

Josh's brother's name is actually Seth Johnson (not Sefrin)

I am very interested in tracing Josh's family genealogy (as well as my own heritage) . I have quite a bit of information that belonged to Elinor Johnson (that I brought back from Seaside to look through). If you are interested in any information about Johan Sefrin Johnson's ancestors I can provide that for you. It looks like you have mainly been tracing the West side.

My grandfather was an historian, so I have inherited his paperwork to continue research on my family from the South. I absolutely love it. I will also continue doing the job Elinor had started for the Johnson family to pass on to our children.

Thanks again for your research into the West side. Feel free to email anytime: joshua2005@centurytel.net
